REWARDING THE WORKERS.

President Taft Proceeding Slowly and home, being one of the few who made Tactfully in Distributing Patronage.

All Factions of the Party Considered—A

Tactfully in Distributing Patronage.

All Factions of the Party Considered—A

Tactfully in Distributing Patronage.

All Factions of the Party Considered—A

Where it mentions the 3d N. Y. Cav., where we burned the bridge. I am the Rich Harvest of Plums in the Fall.

When the popular excitement over tar-When the popular excitement over the fift revision has abated and the country fighting a short distance away at a has time to think of other events that wagon bridge. After crawling along proceed from Washington, it will occur the railroad bank for a couple of hunnently that there has been an dred feet we got a volley from probably hange in the personnel of a dozen rebels in some bushes close beimportant change in the personnel of place holders. Hardly a day goes by but what one or more appointments are made. Many are appointments which need not go to the Senate for confirmation, Consequently they attract less attention.

Thus far the typewritten slips from the White House, which are distributed about the Control every afterneon, when the Control every afterneon when the C white House, which are distributed about the Capitol every afternoon when the President sends in nominations for confirmation, have been chiefly the promotions of officers in the Army and the Navy These have been numerous. The commission of the reliable of the promotion of the reliable of the promotion of the reliable of the promotion of the reliable of the promotion. The remaining two—wesley Thomas, of Co. H. 3d N. Y. Cav., and myself—lay low and close to the reliable of the promotion of of th These have been numerous. The commis-sioned list of the military services of the Government now comprises many thous-ands of men. Retirements for age come so rapidly that there are vacancies for promotions by the score every few days. As seniority prevails in most of those nominations, the President's part in making them is chiefly of a routine character. He has been making a few other nomina-tions to the Senate, occasionally a Cus-toms collector, or a Receiver or Register for the Land Office. But there has been comparatively little change indeed in the comparatively little change indeed in the big places and with some half a hundred exceptions, perhaps, the same Republicans are serving under the Taft Administration who served under the Roosevelt When boots and saddles sounded our being and beyond extinguishing.

It is different among the smaller places. those that pay solaries ranging from $1,000 up to $4,000. There has been a considerable moving of men out of such places and the substitution of men of the places and the substitution of men of the President's own selection. Postmaster General Hitchcock and Secretary Nagle, of Commerce and Labor, who are the President's leading political advisers, have been cognizant of most of those changes, which have by 50 means been confined to their two Departments. Those two Cabinate Companies the Secretary Nagle, Corporal, Co. H., 3d N. Y. Cav., San Andreas, Cal.

Where Was the Third Brigade? net officers keep the roster of those who aided in the Taft campaign, both before and after the Chicago Convention. They keep the President acquainted with the facts about such workers, and no week goes by without some of those workers being taken care of.

answer to Drury Han, Mokana, Mokana, former Chairman of the National Committee, has had their matters in charge, each sustained considerable box, as witness in she find that Mr. Hitchcock gives the following official figures: 8th them careful and methodical consideration, whether they come to Washington or not, and therefore have decided that it is 17th III., three chilsted men wounded: former Chairman of the National Comin quiet and unobstrusive ways. But in quiet and unobstrusive ways the Taft men of 1908 are being taken care of to the extent of the Administration; ability. There has been no unseemly haste about it and will be none. The President wants the changes political, such as a continuous property of the changes political, such as a continuous property of the changes political, such as a continuous property of the changes political, such as a continuous property of the changes political, such as a continuous property of the changes political, such as a continuous property of the changes of the all his predecessors have deemed wise, made in that fashion. He has demonstrated again and again that he wants to look out for those who were his friends, altho not to the extent of ignoring Republicans who favored other caudidates. His course in that regard has won him an unusual amount of support in both branches the course in that regard has been no such bit.

22d Ohio, 22 enlisted men wounded; total, 22. Total casualties, 272. These figures indicate that the brigade was in it. They retained their position in form of and close to the works until darkness enabled them to withdraw to the investment line, from whence they had started, and where they remained during the siege.—E. Z. Hays, Captain, 22d Ohio, Warsaw O. usual amount of support in both branches of Congress. There has been no such bit-terness among the Allies and their many limitants. heutenants as there was among the Keed men during the first two years of the Mc-Kinley Administration, or as there was among the McKinley and Hanna men dur-ing the first years of the Roosevelt Ad-

Postmaster General Hitchcock is tak Postmaster General Hitchcock is tak in care of a few Republicans in the Postmaster of the Agricultural Postmaster of the Agr Postmaster General Hitchcock is tak-

PICKET SHOTS

How the Bridge Was Fired.

down the river to help their compan-ions, who were being driven by a Yan-

Where Was the Third Brigade?

Editor National Tribune: I was Corporal in charge of detachment No. 82, Andersonville, until I escaped and came Corporal who, with five others, started, dismounted, with balls of candle-wicking, saturated with turpentine, down the railroad bank about one city block. Ohio, Pine Grove, W. Va., enlisted early in the war; was discharged for sickness; re-enlisted for three years as soon as he recovered health; enlisted, not for the pay, for he left a job that was paying him $40 a month, and thought only of him $40 a month, and thought only of him $40 a month. him $40 a month, and thought only of duty. He risked his life on the battle, field, not for a soldier's pay, but for his country, as a patriotic duty of the citizen, to defend the integrity of the Government, to preserve the Union. He is now 66 years old. It is folly to assert that the unwounded man is not to-day less physically able to maintain himself and his wife than he would have been had he not endured military service in the '60's.

Comrade Charles F. Roberts, Cos. E who had given us the volleys move and F. 30th Ind., Route 3, Hicksville, Ind., is the sole survivor of the veterkee charge. Then Thomas and I rushed ans of the Union, Army and Navy, 1861-1865, who now resides in Scip. of Township. He thinks the lines are grown thin enough to justify our Congress in enacting pension laws based on reason, right and patriotism, recognizing the fact that men whom fought for the Government at $11 to $13 a month in the side of the President was a thorn in the side of the President was a thorn in the side of the President was a man of inordinate ambition. His ambition was being constantly stirred by Mrs. Fremont, a beautiful and accomplished woman, who was the daughter of that grand old Missourian, Sentatory and the commander who was to be a thorn in the side of the President was a man of inordinate ambition. His ambition was being constantly stirred by Mrs. Fremont, a beautiful and accomplished woman, who was the daughter of that grand old Missourian, Sentatory and the commander who was to be a thorn in the side of the President was a man of inordinate ambition. His ambition was being constantly stirred by Mrs. Fremont, a beautiful and accomplished woman who was the first of the president was a man of inordinate ambition. His ambition was being constantly stirred by Mrs. Fremont, a beautiful and accomplished woman who was the daughter of the president was a man of inordinate ambition. His ambition was being constantly stirred by Mrs. Fremont, a beautiful and accomplished woman who was to be a thorn in the side of the President was a thorn in the side of the President was a man of inordinate ambition. His ambition was being constantly stirred by Mrs. Fremont, a beautiful and accomplished woman who was the daughter of the president was a man of inordinate ambition was being constantly stirred by Mrs. Fremont a beautiful and accomplished woman with the control of the president was a man of inordinate ambition. His ambition was being constantly stirred by Mrs. Fremont a beautiful and accomplished woman with the control of the president was a man of inordinate ambition. His ambition was being the fact that the control of the president for the bridge, deposited the balls of candle-wicking among the timbers of the bridge and ignited them. In a mo-ment the black smoke was seen, and our men gave yell after yell of enthu-slasm, and the 12-pounder mountain howitzers poured grape and canister into the burning bridge so the Confederates could not put the fire out. As erates could not put the fire out. As in 40 per cent paper were not in it for soon as we had lighted our torches we pay, plunder or pelf, but for patriotism, was only a Second Lieutenant, and he and that such services as theirs inevitably lessens their vigor and earning powers in age. He thinks the Congress should get busy and make good pro-tective revenue yielding tariff laws, and command mounted their horses, and Thomas and I were left prisoners. We were taken first to Richmond, and put We depend less on breweries and distilinto a tobacco warehouse opposite Lib-bey Prison, where we remained about

W. F. Hall, R. F. D. No. 2, Box 27 Tyler, Tex., would like to correspond with members of the old 12th Tenn. Cav., as he has a number of old war songs familiar to the regiment. He His achievements as a "Pathfinder" contemplates copying these, and send-literature. Upon the outbreak of the literature. Cav. who writes to him.

F. Frick, Paso Robies, Cal., says that he collisted in August, 1861, in Co. D. McClellan.

11th Ill., and was wounded May 23.
1862, at the charge on Vicksburg. If in the country who thought themselves superior in ability and experience to superior in ability and experience to the country who thought themselves superior in ability and experience to the country who thought themselves are the country who thought the country who thought the country who there is the country who is the cou Editor National Tribune: Will you kindly permit me to supplement your answer to Drury Hall, Mokana, Mo.,

cess.

Editor National Tribune: In your in-teresting paper of June 10 W. C. Barden, of Battle Creek, Mich., says Gen. Sheridan arrived at Cedar Creek at 3:37. My impression was that it was

Will any courades who knew Comrade
Thos. M. Coleman, private, Second Lieutenant, and First Lieutenant, Co. A. and Captain, Co. G. 6th Mo., write to Adj't
John Griffith, of Adj't John E. MyersPost, 386, Sligo. Pa. Comrade Coleman was a member of this Post, and died Nov.
11, 1907.

Far from being the smaller of the momentous burdens which President Lincoln was carrying at this time was his solicitude as to the attitude of Kentucky, his native State. The central position which Kentucky occupied made her as important to the West as Visited was to the East.

ABRAHAM LANCOLN. (Continued from page one.)

Whole Line.

Whole Line.

Whole Line.

The battle—in short, being broken down by many particular hurts, besides the general infirmities of age—1 feel that I have become an incumbrance to the army as well as to myself, and that I Scattering.

Comrade John Judge, Co. F. 180th
Dhio, Pine Grove, W. Va., enlisted early n the war; was discharged for sickness;
could be president, at the earliest moment, to allow me to be placed on the officers' retired list, and then quietly to

Gen. John C. Fremont.

Another commander who was to be was constantly being incited by her to do something to give him fatne and prominence. In California he had shown himself so insubordinate and in-capable as to bring about a court-martial and dismissal from the Army, after which he went into politics and was elected a Senator from the new State of California. He became an ardent Free Soller, and was nominated by the in 1856 and made a phenomenal run war he sought employment, and was made a Major-General in the Regular who asks where the Third Brigade, goes by without some of those workers being taken care of.

Rewarding the Workers.

The rewards to such workers have by no means been as rich as in previous Administrations, but they constitute recognistion. There has been no descent of other expected that the faithful legion who toiled as that of the faithful legion who toiled sunder the late Charman Hanna, or even as that of the faithful legion who toiled sown ight during March, 1905. Most of the ringed formed for the charge of the Care the Care that Lincoln Mass pheased to get the you should add the I fill II. On the morning of the S2d the brigade was lying on or back of the ridge running of the S2d the brigade was lying on the Care the C cess.

Comrade Warren S. White, Cos. G and A. 9th Ill., Mingus, Tex., had a good and 18 enlisted men willed, one officer and 22 enlisted men wounded; total, 22. Tith Ill., four officers, 14 enlisted men killed, one officer and 22 enlisted men wounded; total, 25. Sist Ill., four officers, 14 enlisted men wounded; total, 37. The Moniton enlisted men wounded; total, 38. The Moniton enlisted men wounded; total, 162. Said men wounded; total, 162. The guest inquired, "Whence this profus sion of fat and luxurious living?" and, at active part with their enemies in the field. The guest inquired, "Whence this profus sion of fat and luxurious living?" and, at active part with their enemies in the field. The guest inquired, "Whence this profus shall be directly proven to have taken an active part with their enemies in the field. He ordered the slaves of all living the size of Missouri. This gave the figures indicate that the brigade was in in front of and close to the works until darkness enabled them to withdraw to the investment line, from whence they had started, and where they remained during the siege.—E. Z. Hays, Captain, 22d Ohio, Warsaw O.

Sheridan at Cedar Creek. all of the promises to the Republican Party should be rigorously fulfilled. In watch for the foragers." Comrade White hopes to hear from his old comrades. He thinks the law should pension all widows of Union soldiers—not a class, but all who are widows of soldiers. He notes many inconsistencies in pension haws. He is totally disabled by a bullet in his thigh and both legs abot; yet gets but $12 a month while his actual condition is ratable at $30.

Comrade John W. Swariz, 2008 Pine Comrad tence. President Lincoln was finally forced to remove Fremont in November.

render of Lexington, both directly traceable to Fremont's gross incompe-

Virginia was to the East. The con-spirators had made every possible pre-paration for carrying the State into separation for carrying the state into se-cession with her Governor, a large por-tion of the Legislature, Vice President Breckinridge and Gen. S. B. Buckner, controlling her militia, actively in favor went so far as to organize the Union men of Louisville, who wanted to serve the cause, in camps across the river at

The first to violate this neutrality was the Confederate General Polk, who advanced to Columbus, Ky., to threaten Cairo, Ill., and to begin a movement to capture Paducah and Smithland, at the mouths of the Ten-nessee and Cumberland Rivers. At Cairo was the aler; U. S. Grant, who seized Paducah and Smithland ahead seized Paducah and Smithland ahead of the Bishop. Then Kentucky neutrality ceased, the United States troops entered the State to expel the invaders, and Kentucky cast her lot definitely with the loyal States. Gen. W. T. Sherand Kentucky cast her lot dennitely with the loyal States. Gen W. T. Sherman was appointed to succeed Gen. every field of battle he led it straight into the heaviest fighting. The story and the heaviest fighting of the heaviest fighting. matters, so that from the first he got due recognition to the heroism of the along very badly with those whom he along very badly with those whom he rank and file which made the glorious (To be continued.)

MORE CONSERVATISM.

(Continued from first page.)

Departments. Of course, they were quick, in most instances, to govern themselves according to the now dominant authority. Some, however, have changed from reluctantly, because they believe the tory and attractive manner.

The author criticizes some of the statistics as to the remarkable loss of this regiment. It occupies a third position are also believe the tory are also believe the statistics as to the remarkable loss of this regiment. the pioneer in bringing the question of the greatest number of killed, the first the pioneer in bringing the question of legal interpretation to an issue. The President's support of his view was possibly the most important single act of his Administration to date. It is having a far-reaching effect. It means a change of policy in countless details of administration. Its influence upon the other Department here levely because the country of the list Me. H. A. The total battle loss of the regiment was about 68 per the other Departments has already been | cent.

The Department of Commerce and Labor.

Nowhere has this been the case in a more pronounced way than in the De-partment of Commerce and Labor, over Interior Department it has a large army of employes, with several very large Bureaus engaged in operations that come very close to the people. It has jurisdiction over Immigration, Steamboat Ispection, Fisheries, Census, Lighthouses, Labor, Manufactures, Corporations and the Coast and Geodetic Survey. Each of these is represented in the Department of Commerce and Lacon. the Department of Commerce and La-bor by a Bureau. Most of these Bu-reaus have large forces of employes, he resultant changes in the Census way. Office at a critical period, makes for the betterment of the Census Office or not, Secretary Nagle is now conducting the Census Office in compliance with tions have been built up or extended with a view to carrying out recently devised programs.

The Department of Agriculture, Much that holds true in this regard of the Interior and of the Commerce Departments applies also to the De-partment of Agriculture. It, too, has been shaken from center to circumferbeen shaken from center to circumfer-ence by the new order of things. But Secretary of Agriculture Wilson has trimmed his sails somewhat because of the onslaughts from Congress and the criticisms of the Department's large expenditures and extensive operations in new fields. However, the work of the Department of Agriculture is very popular with that great and controlling farming constituency of the country, and, all in all, it is not so easy to reach it. On the contrary, much that the other two Departments has been doing is unpopular in certain influential quarters, and it has been conse the new methods of conducting the pubtic business tive part of the Government there has naturally been less Bureau building and fewer departures upon new lines of The President has exercised more care and shown less partisanship about the Diplomatic and Consular appointments of any spirit of controversy, since Combis Places have been almost entirely free from politics. No personal favorites have been aftern battery boys.—H. E. Morgan, 1st N. Y. Ind'pt' Battery (Cowan's), Clarkston, political consideration in naming men for those much desired places. There was some outery a few weeks ago when about

Discounts and Consular appointments of law Administration, possibly, from any obstacle and the second of the Administration, possibly, from the Administration of the South hose possibly and the Administration of the Administration of the South hose possibly and the Administration of the RECENT LITERATURE.

STORY OF THE 57TH MASS. By Ma) John Anderson, U. S. Army Published by E. B. Stillings & Co. Boston, Mass.

The 57th Mass., the "2d Veteran Regiment," had a glorious but sad history.
It was in active service less than a year, and yet its per cent of killed was one of the highest in the war. It left the State April 18, 1864, with 1.052 men.

After Thirty Years Experience I Have Produced An Appliance For Men, Women or Children That Cures Rupture. of the highest in the war. It left the State April 18, 1864, with 1,052 men. history of the regiment and proper appreciation of such magnificent leaders as Col. (afterward Maj.-Gen.) Wm. F. Bart-lett, Col. N. B. McLaughlin, Lieut.-Cols. Chas. L. Chandler, J. M. Tucker and others. The regiment had four Majors, of whom one served but a few week: and two of the other three were reau Chiefs in the Interior and other The book is finely illustrated with halftones of officers and men, and in

UNCLE BOB AND AUNT BECKY'S
EXCITING TRIP, By Herschel
Williams. Published by Laird &
Lee, Chicago, Ill.

This is a new comic story of travel, more pronounced way than in the Department of Commerce and Labor, over where a quaint old couple and their which Mr. Nagle presides. Like the Interior Department it has a large army of employes, with several very large cities, finally going to the Seattle Ex-

cox. Published by Wilcox Books Concern, Chicago, Ill.

reaus have large forces of employes, and some of them, like the Bureaus of the Interior Department, have numbers of Inspectors and Special Agents.

The flurry over the administration of the Census Bureau was due in the main to Secretary Nagle's strict interpretation of the law with reference to his hours. They are dedicated to his reference to his hours. They are dedicated to his reference to his hours. tion of the law with reference to his hours. They are dedicated to his wife authority. He made the test promptly, and they speak feelingly of the real as did Secretary Ballinger, was upheld pleasures of life which are in reach of by the President, and whether in this every man. The book is handsomely particular instance the decision, with gotten up, and is attractive in every Hagerman's Bible Found.

Editor National Tribune: At Chaucelthe Census Office in compliance with the more conservative school of legal interpretation.

This new regime is responsible at bottom for the shake-up that has been in progress in the Department of Commerce and Labor in recent weeks and which has extended down to the clerical force. The agitation there has been a little less demonstrative, and, then, his Department of Commerce and Labor in recent weeks and which has extended down to the clerical force. The agitation there has been a little less demonstrative, and, then, his Department

Don't Wear A Truss

I Send It on Trial. If you have tried most everything else, come to me. Where others fall is where I have my greatest success. Send attached coupon today and I will send you free my illustrated book on Rupture and its cure, showing my Appliance and giving you prices and names of many people who have tried it and were cured. It is instant relief when all others fail. Remember I use no saives, no harness, no lies.

The above is C. E. Wrooks of Marshall. Mich who has been carring Rupture for over 30 years. If Ruptured, write him to-day.

I send on trial to prove what I say is true, You are the judge and once having seen my illustrated book and read it you will be as enthusiastic as my hundreds of patients whose letters you can also read. Fill out free coupon below and mail today. It's well worth your time whether you try my Appliance or not.

FREE INFORMATION COUPON. C. E. Brooks, 263 Brooks Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

Pleas send me by mail in plain wrapper you dissirated book and full information about you appliance for the cure of rupture.

The 3d Ohio Cav.

Editor National Tribune: I am a traveling man, and miss seeing a good many copies of The National Tribune. but when I get home I love to look them over. I want to ask if there is any kind of a history of the 3d Ohio Cav. I was a member of Co. B.—F. J. Peck, Grand Forks, N. D.

Marched Many Marches,

Editor National Tribune: While serving under Maj.-Gen. A. J. Smith during the term of service of the 89th Ind. It marched 2,363 miles on foot, by raiload 1,232 miles, and by steamers miles, making a total of 10,707 miles, being in Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Mis-souri, Kansas and Alabama. The 21st Mo. and 58th Ill. of our division can add more than 300 miles to that.— Robert Blackburn, Co. H, 89th Ind., Decatur, Ind.

strictive, and, then, his Department comes less into touch with the people of the East. Both Departments have been engaged upon a vast deal of new work, largely pioneer work, and during the last few years Bureau organization to the last few years Bureau organization of the last few years Bureau organization organization of the last few years Bureau organization organization of the last few years Bureau organization orga

Have you received all the pay and bounty now collectable in view of the act of March 4, 1962; Write for circular. MELO E. STEVENS & CO., Atya. Founded 1864 by Mile B. Stevens, into of lith Ohlo Saitery. See 14th Sec. N. W., Washington, P. C.

The National Tribune Scrap Book STORIES OF THE CAMP, MARCH, BATTLE,

MOSPITAL AND PRISON TOLD BY COMRADES

THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE has received many entertaining stories of the camp, march, battle, hospital and prison which it has been unable to print in the columns of the paper owing to the length of the stories and the fact that space must be found in THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE for matter other than that relating to the War. These stories are entirely too good to remain unprinted. THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE therefore has issued a "Scrap Book," containing a number of these reminiscences.

The following is the table of contents: Barbara Frietchie; a Confederate Invasion of Maryland. By Lieut. W. A.

Johnson, C. S. A.
Battle of Brice's Crossroads, Miss. By C. F. Macdonald.
Battle of Mission Ridge, Tenn. By I. G. Hoops.
Reminiscences From an Army Surgeon. By Dr. C. E. Goldsborough.
Service Observations From the Standpoint of a Private Soldier. By Tharles L. The 19th Iowa in Battle and in Prison. By J. E. Houghland.

At the Siege of Norfolk. By H. C. Van Vechten Reminiscences of a Private. By M. C. Huyette. On Picket in Front of Petersburg, Va. By Charles Porter, My Escape From a Rebel Prison, By Capt. M. S. Ludwig, The 11th Kan, Cav. After Price and the Indians. By W. F. Nichola, The 11th Kan. Cav. After Price and the Indians. By W. F. Nichola, A Heavy Load of Gold. By James F. Bullard. The Cumberland Gap Campaign. By E. T. Petty. A Family of Nine in Service. By Wm. L. Baldwin.

The Martyrdom of Lieut. Sanborn. By Capt. Wallace Foster.

The Record of a Nine-Months Regiment. By O. B. Wright.

In More Than Ninety Batties. By Brig.-Gen. Erastus Blaksice
What Might Have Been. By G. W. White.

Hood's Invasion of Tennessee. By John S. Van Arsdel.

Music and the Hair. By A. J. Wari.

The Mansion by a Spring in the Valley of the Shenandoah. By Henry Seymour Clapp.

Clapp. Strayed or Stolen. By T. J. Alley.

Editor National Tribune: During A Picket's Story. By William McCarter.

Realities Reading Like Fiction. By John D. Vautler.

Two Critical Periods—The Capture of Washington in 1861 or 1864 Would Have Resulted in Foreign Recognition of the Southern Confederacy. By Smith D. Fry. ebel "Victory" on Lake Erie. By Annie M. Nichols.

Fuller's Ohio Brigade at Atlanta. By Maj Charles H. Smith. Captured by the Grand Rounds. By F. I. Barker, Surely in Columbia. By Lieut. Stephen M. Lutz. A Military Execution. By Augustine Marin. The Scrap Book contains 160 pages.

Price 25 cents, or with THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE one year, $1.00. Address THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE, Washington, D. C.

HISTORIC POSTAL CARDS.

A Fine and Artistic John Brown Series.

THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE has just published a highly interesting series of postal cards relating to the John Brown raid. There are 12 of these and they give.

A photograph of John Brown which was approved by all his family, A view of the Court House in which he was tried.

Harper's Ferry. John Brown's Tannery in Pennsylvania.

The Jail in which he was confined. John Brown's Home at North Elba, N. Y.

The Kennedy House in Maryland where Brown collected his orces and from which he started upon his raid.

A view of the lonely burying ground where Brown's companions The Fort at Harper's Ferry where Brown made his last stand.

The grave at North Elba where Brown's body was interred and the scene of Brown's trial at Charlestown. These are executed in the most artistic manner, printed in natural colors, making a set as beautifu, in execution as they are interesting in history. On the back of each card is a legend giving in brief compass the essential facts. They make invaluable additions to any collection of war Dictures and re acceptable presents friends.

Price 2s cents, or with The National Tribune one year. $1.00

THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE. WASHINGTON, D. C.